

I understand that the law in Indiana provides more protection to homeowners from telemarketers than the nationwide law that you are proposing. I would not want to see what we have now in Indiana watered down. Thank you for considering my opinion.